Because intelligence is absolutely no barrier to cult recruitment. This is because a person's intelligence is totally bypassed during the process of cult recruitment. When reality testing is suspended then one's intelligence is not applied at all in order to ascertain the reasonableness of the cult's teachings.

At this point, the best option would probably be an MSF degree or maybe pursue the CFA, come up with solid investment pitches, and network like crazy to get in. Going from payments to an investing role is very difficult, but if you do one of those and target smaller AM firms, itâ€™s possible because AM firms tend to recruit a wider variety of candidates than the large banks do.
